THE BEACON

Dedication

Not often in a life-time does a person meet anyone as energetic as this man. His chief aim in life is to accomplish all that is humanly possible for one school. Scholarly, neat, polite and friendly, outstanding as a Christian gentleman and worker . . . Such is he; therefore, we consider it an honor and a distinction to dedicate this volume of the 1960 Beacon, to our coach, teacher and friend Mr. Kenneth G. Mathews.

Day of Hope

It was Sunday, December 13, 1959 . . . less than two years after the ground was broken for the new high school . . . and the group assembled in the auditorium had come to participate in the dedication of the school. As the music of the blue and gold uniformed band filled the auditorium, it seemed a fitting prelude to the dedication of this spacious new school with its many advantages never before available in Washington County. Here is a modern school, symbolizing a new hope for Washington Countians in the realization that every young person desiring an education now can have the best.

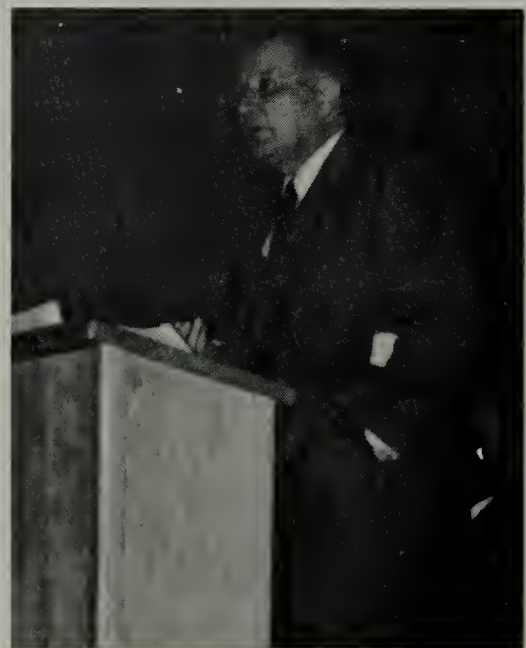

"If we work upon marble, it will perish;
if on brass, time will efface it; if we rear temples, they will crumble
into dust; but if we work upon
immortal minds, and imbue
them with principles, with the just fear of God and
love of our fellow-men,
we engrave on those
tablets something
that will bright-
en to all eternity."

Mrs. Robert Stiles and Mr. J. T. Hayter accept the new building from Mr. D. R. Beeson.

Mr. E. B. Stanley, Superintendent of Washington County Schools, presided.

Mr. W. N. Neff, president of State Board of Education in Virginia, and a citizen of Abingdon, was one of the speakers.

The Two Most Important Groups at Abingdon High School

Banquets on special occasions and daily lunches are prepared and served by the cafeteria staff of the high school. A special added service is the urn of coffee ready and waiting to tide the faculty members over to lunch. So - - - who can argue that area in our school is anything but high in the importance field.

Mrs. Peggy Counts, Mrs. Dorothy McCracken, Mrs. Ruby Colley, Mrs. Adele Anderson.

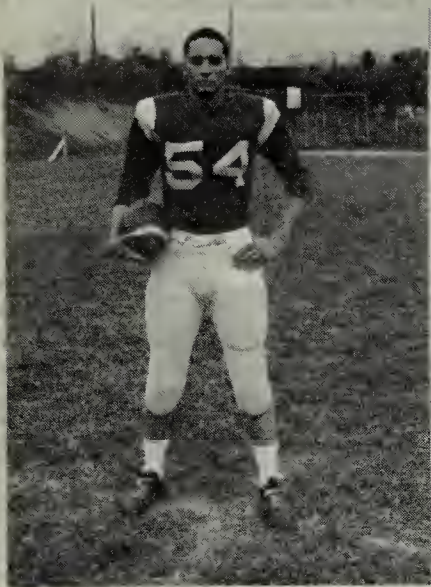

Mr. Bill Findley, Mr. Paul Stanley, Mr. Robert Morris.

Whether it be coaxing the new grass seed to rise in the newly seeded areas or persuading the floors down the long halls to stay shining clean by continued assaults with huge dust mops, the three maintenance men also rate high in their relation to all school activities.
